24 November 1972

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Deputy Director for Intelligence

THROUGH : Chairman, EIC 72

SUBJECT : Standard Distribution of CIA/DDI
Publications to Treasury

1. I recommend that you authorize the responsible DDI Offices to place Treasury on distribution for their publications as stated in paragraphs 3 and 4 below.

2. Recommendations 5 and 6 of EIC Report R 21, "Economic Intelligence Requirements," June 1972, call for improved dissemination of classified economic intelligence among the agencies of the Washington economic community. As an outgrowth of my regular dealings with Victor A. Mack, Treasury's member of the EIC, and with the approval of [REDACTED] I have discussed the establishment of an automatic dissemination of DDI finished intelligence publications to Treasury with John J. McGinnis -- Treasury's representative to USIB -- and his staff. Such distribution would be additional to specific and ad hoc transmittals, e.g., both codeword versions of the Central Intelligence Bulletin, and elite dissemination of IMs and IRs, now made to Treasury officials. 25X1A

3. The Office of the Assistant Secretary for International Affairs (CASIA) is the principal operational and research entity within Treasury for matters related to the formulation and execution of US foreign policy. Accordingly, McGinnis requests that they be served directly with non-codeword DDI publications. After

I recommend the following standard distribution be made to Treasury/OASIA (c/o Mrs. Ellen D. Downing, Security Officer, Central Classified Document Unit, Room 1438, Main Treasury):

OER Intelligence Memoranda and Reports	5
OCI Intelligence Memoranda and Reports	3
CRS Biographical Memoranda and Reports	2
OBGI Intelligence Memoranda and Reports	2
National Intelligence Surveys	2
Basic Intelligence Factbook	3
Central Intelligence Bulletins (white)	5
Central Intelligence Weekly Summary	5

4. In addition to the foregoing, McGinnis requests that two (2) copies of the Factbook and one (1) copy of all OSR IMs (including codeword) be sent to him directly. [REDACTED] agrees to the latter with the proviso that Bruce Clarke may on occasion exercise a right of refusal.

25X1A

5. For your information, [REDACTED] has agreed to send five (5) copies of all non-codeword NIEs to OASIA, and DDP [REDACTED] is disseminating two (2) copies of most of its reports to Treasury, one for McGinnis and one for OASIA. Indeed, the new TDCS form has "TREAS" printed in the masthead.

6. Note that no mention has been made of DCS and [REDACTED] documents. [REDACTED] and the General Counsel's office are now working out a suitable caveat to be stamped on all [REDACTED] disseminated to Treasury. This would allay fears of the field offices that Treasury enforcement arms might take action that would threaten DCS sources. In the meanwhile, selected [REDACTED] are disseminated to Treasury and a channel has been established for Treasury to secure bulky attachments that are maintained by CRS. At this time, Treasury does not desire standard [REDACTED] service other than the one (1) set McGinnis now receives.

* The proposals in paragraphs 3 and 4 are approved subject to these two conditions: (1) that the Office of Security determine that Treasury has adequate security measures for the receipt, storage, and protection of classified documents, particularly codeword; (2) that Treasury undertake to implement some procedures whereby publications will be returned when they have outlived their usefulness rather than become part of a permanent storage arrangement at Treasury.
